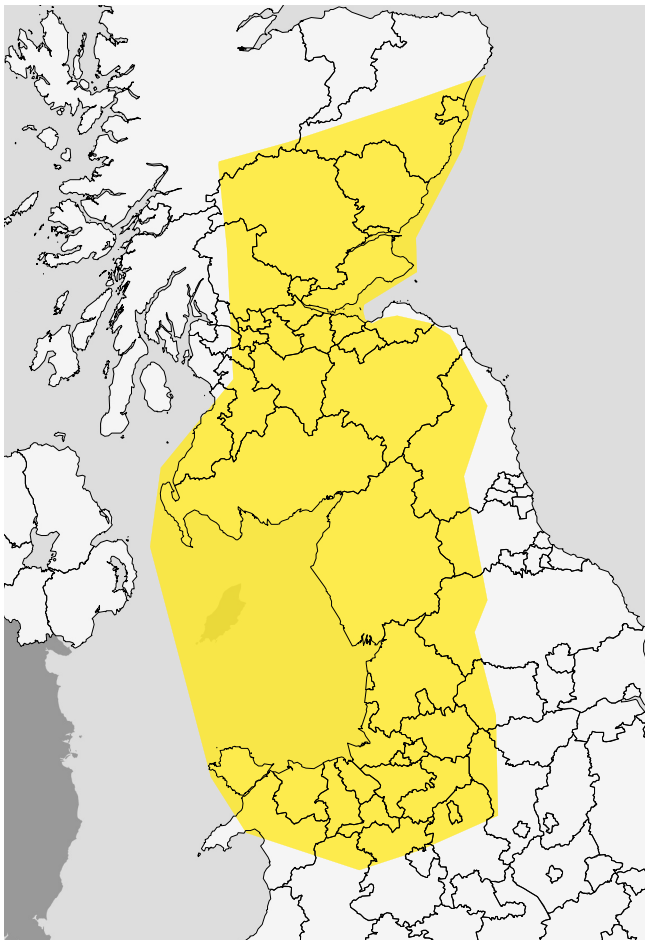
Yellow warning
Snow & Ice

Between
18:00 Wed 30 Dec 2020 and
14:00 Thu 31 Dec 2020



Ice likely to form across parts of Scotland, north Wales and north England leading to some travel disruption along with snow for some parts.

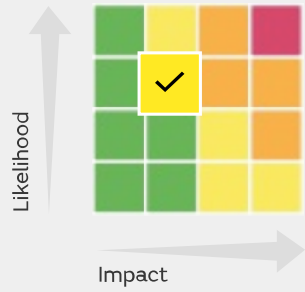
What to expect

- Probably some icy patches on some untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths
- Some injuries from slips and falls on icy surfaces
- Some roads and railways likely to be affected with longer journey times by road, bus and train services

Further details

Showers of rain, sleet and snow will move south across parts of Scotland, north Wales and north England through Wednesday evening and into Thursday.

Whilst not all areas will see these where they do fall ice is expected to form. The showers are also likely to fall as snow at times, mainly above 200 m but to some lower levels, particularly on Thursday morning over southern Scotland. Some accumulations of 1-3 cm are likely, again mainly over higher ground, but 5 cm or more is possible over parts of southern Scotland.



Medium likelihood of low impacts
